

UNIVERSITY OF ST. FRANCIS

RESPECT. SERVICE. INTEGRITY. COMPASSION.

Recreation, Sport and Tourism Management Department

Rho Phi Lambda/ USF Alpha Iota Chapter

Application for Membership

2005-06

Rho Phi Lambda is the national honorary society for recreation, park and leisure majors. The University of St. Francis Alpha Iota Chapter was chartered in 1998. Students majoring in Recreation Administration to be considered for membership in Alpha Iota Chapter must meet the following criteria.

Rho Phi Lambda is the national honorary society for recreation, park and leisure majors. The University of St. Francis Alpha Iota Chapter was chartered in 1998. To qualify for membership in Alpha Iota Chapter of Rho Phi Lambda, USF students must meet the following criteria.

- Recreation Administration major
- Junior/Senior status (60 hours or more)
- 21 credit hours or more completed in the major
- 3.0 overall G.P.A.
- 3.25 G.P.A. within the major
- Demonstrate evidence of academic excellence in scholarship and have a substantial record of leadership and service to the community, department and/or university.

Advisor to the Alpha Iota Chapter of Rho Phi Lambda is Dr. Lyle L. Hicks, Department Chair, Recreation, Sport and Tourism Management.

Qualified applicants to be considered for membership into the University of St. Francis Chapter Alpha Iota must complete the following information and return the application Dr. Lyle L. Hicks, Chair, Recreation, Sport and Tourism Management Department.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Specialization within the major _____

Overall G.P.A. _____

G.P.A. within the Major: _____

1. Provide a biographical profile of yourself and include a current resume.
2. Please list your work and activities that support leadership and services requirements to be considered for membership in Rho Phi Lambda national honorary society for recreation, park and leisure majors.
3. Write a description of why you should be considered for membership into Rho Phi Lambda.
4. Explain in detail significant experiences of how you have made a contribution to the community or the university.

Students accepted into Rho Phi Lambda pay an initiation fee of $30 to pay for a lifetime membership pin, certificate and award ceremony.