Medical University of Graz

Austria

Location: Graz, Austria
Curriculum Focus: Nursing, Science, Biology
Accommodations: Shared student residence halls
Tuition, Fees and Extra Costs
- USF Students will pay their regular USF tuition to USF.
- Students are responsible for paying their housing directly to the host institution or private landlord, depending on their housing choice. Rent is approximately 310 euro ($420 USD) per month.
- Meals are purchased at the expense of the student and usually costs approximately 200 euro ($280 USD) per month.
- Personal spending and travel money depends on each individual student. Assess your normal spending habits and plan on spending at least that much

Further Information
- All courses are taught in English
- Summer and semester exchange programs are available
- An unlimited number of students are eligible to participate in the summer nursing exchange program
- Fall semester runs from September to December. Spring semester runs from January to June.

from Late January to Early June

Please note that all prices are estimates and can change at any time.