Universidad Católica San Antonio

SPAIN

Location: Murcia, Spain

Curriculum Focus: Spanish Language and Lit, International Business, Nursing, Education, Communication, Journalism, Computer Science

Accomodations: Shared student residence halls or apartments

Tuition, Fees and Extra Costs
- USF Students will pay their regular USF tuition to USF.
- Students are responsible for paying their housing directly to the host institution or private landlord, depending on their housing choice. Rent is approximately 250 euro ($400 USD) per month.
- Meals are purchased at the expense of the student. Students can either purchase food to cook in their apartment/residence hall, or go out to eat.
- Personal spending and travel money depends on each individual student. Asses your normal spending habits and plan on spending at least that much.

Further Information
- To get to Murcia, Spain, students will fly into Madrid and then can either fly to Murcia’s regional airport or take a train to Murcia. Flights from Chicago (ORD) to Madrid (MAD) usually cost about $1,100.
- Courses are available in both English and Spanish
- UCAM offers a summer Spanish language program that all students are eligible to attend. The cost is 1500 euro for three weeks and includes room and board at a homestay or shared student apartment.
- Fall semester runs from September to December. Spring semester runs from January to June.

Please note that all prices are estimates and can change at any time.